

after school drama clubs in croydon

croydon youth theatre are offer your students an amazing opportunity

This is an exciting learning opportunity for a group of your talented, creative and dedicated students who have an interest in the dramatic arts; Croydon Youth Theatre Organisation (CYTO) are offering a number of free six-week drama after school clubs for students aged 13-15 to a number of schools in your borough.

This is your chance to nominate your most talented, motivated pupils with a passion to extend their drama practise and provide them with the opportunity to work with your local Youth Theatre, which may even lead to becoming a member.

What does it cover?

Participants will have taster sessions in characterisation, improvisation and story making, and will create a short devised pieces on the subject of 'community'. These are all aimed to spark an interest and enjoyment of drama lead by talented and professional drama practitioners from Eastside Educational Trust.

On the final week, the students will share their piece at the Shoestring Theatre in front of their friends and family, the other schools on the project, and members of CYTO.

What is the commitment?

In order to take part in this programme you must be able to provide the following:

- 16 students signed up to the club (with 4 extra on the waiting list) aged between 13 - 15
- A suitable space for the five weeks of the after school club
- Provide a member of staff for the sixth session to assist with the transportation to the Shoestring Theatre (a member of staff will not need to be present during the 5 weeks of the club)

Dates of Programme will run on either Tuesdays, Wednesdays or Thursdays after school for 90 mins

Tuesdays:

6th, 20th, 27th February and 6th, 13th March
(and 20th March at Shoestring Theatre)

Wednesdays:

7th, 21st, 28th February and 7th, 14th March
(and 21st March at Shoestring Theatre)

Thursdays:

8th, 22nd February and 1st, 8th, 15th March
(and 22nd March at Shoestring Theatre)
